Officer Reports

President's Welcome: Liza Maddrey

Liza called the meeting to order, and thanked everyone for attending.

Treasurer's Report: Brittany Heare

Brittany brought the October report and passed it around. She highlighted the bigger expenses and the balance of 52,589.02. She thanked all that were involved with the Coalminor challenge fundraiser.

Vice President: Ways and Means Report: Lindsay Miller

Lindsay reported the upcoming spirit nights of Nov. 20 for Chick-fil-A, which will be an all day benefit for Watkins and the PTA table will be there from 4:45-7pm. The Skateaway Resource teacher night will be on January 15. The tentative night for the Richmond Spiders Basketball night is Saturday January 25.

Committee Reports

Staff Appreciation: Beth Hines (not present)

Liza would like to work with the sunshine committee to not overlap and coordinate schedules.

Special Guest Speaker

Lisa Hudgins, Midlothian District School Board Representative

Lisa stated that Watkins will get a Mega Trailer next year. Midlothian Middle School is still on the books and is half funded. She spoke about the development of the Midlothian area, new school possibilities and the new Chief of Police.

Representative Reports

Principal Report: Debbie McGonigle

Debbie introduced the new Assistant Principal of Watkins, Amy Lott. Amy thanked everyone for the warm welcome and stated that it has been a smooth transition and to not hesitate to call or email her with questions.
